Tonite is homecoming! "Yes," many of you will say, "tonite is homecoming, but I'm not much excited." Is that your attitude?

Cal Johnson, a junior at Janesville High School, sat with his legs draped over the arm of his chair. There was an expression of boredom on his face as he reached for a magazine.

"Cal, why aren't you at the pep meeting tonite?" his mother asked. "This should be a pretty big night with homecoming tomorrow night."

"Yes," his father added, "and didn't I hear you say something about passing up the game and dances? Cal, I'm disappointed in you. I never thought a son of mine would take that attitude. Tomorrow should be a day that you remember the rest of your life."

"A time when a fellow asks his best girl--maybe his first girl for a date. At the game there will be much excitement and many surprises. There will be the band, the cheerleaders, the ceremony for the queen and above all the team--all doing their level best to bring honor to you (and their school). At the dance (something little nicer than most of your social get-togethers) you can show what a gentleman you can be. Remember, it has taken a great deal of work to plan these things. Think it over, Son."

Let's think it over too. We have four opportunities as high school students to attend homecoming. If you are a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, put your whole self into it and make the Marion's best homecoming!

POETRY:

MY OLD MODEL T.

I think that I shall never see,
A ford as lovely as my old MODEL
T;

A ford that swings and a ford
that sways,
From hour to hour and day to day.

A ford whose beautiful horn won't work,
Cause I got mad and gave it a jerk;
A ford whose wheels aren't there
at all,
Since I used it in the field to do the plowing last fall.

In fact my ford has no motor in it,
And not even a seat upon which I can sit;
The reason--a man tried to miss
me,
He couldn't succeed--he'd had too much whiskey.

Now the brakes don't work and one
fender is gone,
And with this sad tale I could go on and on;
But I'm still convinced that I shall never see,
A ford as lovely as my old MODEL
T.

COMING ATTRACTION!!!

Work has been started on the Junior Class Play, "The Hardy Family", starring Otto Welper as Andy Hardy. The rest of the cast includes Corrine Stainbrook, who plays the part of Mrs. Hardy; Ralph Rauch, Mr. Hardy; Pat Benedict, Aunt Milly, an old maid school teacher; John Larkin, Grandpa Hardy; Betty Peck, Marian Hardy, who along with Frank Whittemore, as Wayne Trenton III, supplies the love interest; Dorothy Davis and Arleen Lude-mann, two married sisters, Estelle Hardy Campbell and Myra Hardy Wilcox; and Billy Kempshall, Oscar Stubbins who is Mr. Hardy's political adviser.

The story is centered around Mr. Hardy's political problems, but everyone has his troubles.

As the play promises to be a big success, it is something to look forward to.

SOCIETY:

Marjorie Ostrander entertained twelve boys and girls Monday, October 13, in honor of her fifteenth birthday. Dancing was enjoyed by all, after which refreshments were served.

What would you suggest to be Don Ameche's theme song?

I'll be Don a Meechie in a taxi, honey.

A newly wed couple were just finishing their dinner when the wife said, "I'm so sorry, hubby, but the dog ate your pie." And the husband said, "Don't worry, dear, I'll get you another dog."

PICTURESQUE SPEECH AND PATTERN

She wore a bathing suit that fitted like a sunburn.

Men fall for her the way coal goes into basements.

A woman never knows what kind of dress she doesn't want until she buys it.

She leads her private life in public.

All the polish she had she wore on her fingernails.

Her eyes wrote, "To be continued in our next."

Dancing is wonderful training for girls; it's the first way you learn to guess what a man is going to do before he does it.

If you can't think of any other way to flatter a man, tell him he's the kind of man who can't be flattered.

LOVELORN:

Dear Fuddyduddy:

I have a very important problem which is wearing me down inch by inch. (This means that if I don't solve it soon I'll be too small to play football--gosh that would be terrible!)

There is a very attractive (to say the least) girl in high school whom I like very much. Now, sometimes she smiles and acts very nice to me, but other times-----brrrrrrr!

I want to find out whether she likes me or not. Please help me think of a way.

Worry-worry,

M. I. Impossible

Dear M. I. Impossible:

Isn't it thrilling to think that you are the first man (?) to write to me--I mean to this column; of course I've carried on various correspondence with you! All she needs is a little encouragement--like offering her $5.00 to go to a show. And if you really "take to her" this will seem like very little.

Don't tell anyone else about this method, will you? It's the one I use quite often myself! This ought to be proof that it works, but if it doesn't just come up and see me sometime (gee that has a familiar sound) and I'll show you a couple other methods!

Here's hoping,
Prue Fuddyduddy

NOTICE:

Now you dear little children
see how I've fixed M. I. up!!!!!!

I'll do the same for you if you'll just write down your problem and put it in the VOX room.

Gum! Gum! Gum!

Oh, sure, I know--you've all heard about gum lots of times. And all of you've bought plenty of it, too. Some choose to buy that bubble gum that makes mighty fine cracks and others, just plain gum. Some of you put your penny in a machine and get a round sugar-coated piece of gum, while still others get charcoal or blackjack gum.

There're lots of pros and cons about gum; for instance, doctors say it's healthful to chew lots of it, and at the same time Emily Post turns up her nose and says, "Chewing gum is vulgar and public enemy number one!" The advertisers stress the point that it's perfect for the teeth and gums while the teacher stresses the point in quite a different and more persuading manner "Johnny, if you ever dare to even have any gum in your mouth when you come in this room, you will stay in for ninth period for a whole week!"

You have all seen and heard the girl who chomps and cracks her gum all through the show and have wished a thousand times before the evening was over that you were a bouncer, while right next to you is one who is chewing gum and you didn't even know it.

Although America is the "youngest fry" of all the countries, it is just like the boys who are always inventing something. America is the home of gum. From America the habit of chewing gum has circumnavigated the globe, and in Ceylon they chew betel-nuts so they can be like the "Americans."

Of course, you probably all know that gum is never entirely pure, and when the juice that it is made from reaches the manufacturer it is full of bugs, etc.

Then it is sent through processes to purify it, but as this can not be entirely done they just pour in some flavoring and coloring and send it to us to chew.

In school you can always find a big supply almost anywhere you look--water fountains, under the desks, and in the wastepaper baskets. Most of us, however, think it best to leave it where it was.

Jean Scott

Sobbing, she kissed the man good-bye and got on the train. Noticing her wedding ring, the conductor was sympathetic.

"There now," he said, "does it distress you so to leave your husband?"

"I'm not leaving my husband," she blubbered, "I'm going to him!"

On a hot, sticky summer day a dog or cat will lie down in the shadiest spot it can find, and do nothing. Yet, we call animals dumb.

Willie: "Did Edison make the first talking machine, pa?"

Pa: "No, son, God made the first one, but Edison made the first one that could be shut off."

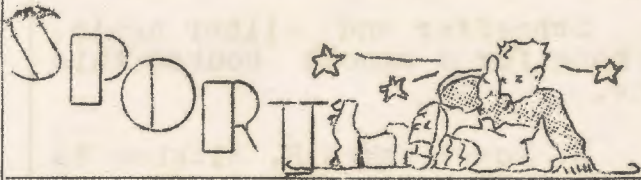

He: "Isn't it about time baby called me daddy?"

She: "I've decided not to let him know who you are until the little darling gets a little stronger."

Pete: It's raining cats and dogs outside.

Jim Marsh: How do you know it is?

Pete: I just stepped in a poodle.

MARION-18-MANCHESTER-0

Friday night the Indians took another victory, scalping the Mohawks 18-0.

The first touchdown came in the first quarter with Don Davin going over. The rest of the half was pretty much an even battle. In the third quarter, the Indians scored again, but missed the extra point. In the last quarter Marsh went over for Marion's final score.

Although Marion showed some good passing and running, the blocking and tackling was a long way from being good.

Let's all get behind the team and make this year's homecoming Marion's best.

MARION-0--VINTON-0

The Marion-Vinton game was held despite the soaking rain and inch-deep mud.

With Jim Marsh's spectacular running and Don Davin's passing and pass intercepting, Marion threatened Vinton's goal line three or four times. Once we missed the first and goal by a few inches and once by a few yards.

In the last few minutes of play Marion had a perfect sleeper, but the Vinton crowd gave it away and thus the score ended 0 to 0.

Smith and Armstrong walked Ostrander and V. Miller home Friday night---Oh, boy!

Larkin can't understand why we don't go through the motions in play practice.

Imagine that--Dick Stamy and Dorothy Ratliff.

F. Clark doesn't go with Barnes anymore; why??

What's this about Cooney's car always breaking down??

Notice to Jack Jones: If you want a date with Betty Peck, trade your old technique for a 1941 model.

Kempshall's new job is hauling garbage. Maybe he will take PU's place in Prudy's affections.

How did Dick Arp do it? He even made LaDell break a date for him.

Is Stark going back to Marion Towers? Or is she going back to him?

Leone Reynolds seems to be doing all right with Bill Perrin.

Monroe and Mack! Sounds odd but could be.

Seems as though the Freshmen rate with the Seniors. Especially Gleason and Blok.

Is it me or the paper? E. Nollch is quite a conversationalist with Jack Walsh!

Ask Potter and Gill about their acquaintance with the highway patrol??

Schaeffer and Wilber again. We hope for a smooth course this time.

R. Mower asked R. Wickham to the hayrack party but they were so busy they didn't have time to eat.

It looks as though C. Castle has been eying Ray Faye. Better watch it, Art.

E. Kramer has gone back to the C. R. girls. Marion is failing.

What can K. Beadle do in 45 minutes? Ask him.

Mac T. seems to be pretty much in demand.

Why did you take the Cedar Rapids girls home so early, Burton and Jack?

Why does Maxine K. go to N. Bebee's aunt's house every noon? It couldn't be to see her aunt??

Gerald Stark thinks Fontaine is a wonderful dancer.

Stay away from B. Morris, fellows. She's already snagged a boxer!!

I'll bet some of the sophomore girls wish J. Kemble would pay more attention to them.

That hayrack party was quite a knockout for Kay Lee and Jack Griner.

Edaburn's latest is Kenny Freeman.

What happened to Leidigh after the game Friday??

Frank Whittemore is seeing quite a bit of Mildred.

Hutchins and Etzel running along smoothly. Oh, Boy!!
