ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Saint Patrick--a name familiar to us all, yet probably three-fourths of us know little or nothing about him. We just take March 17 for granted--a day to wear green. Did you know Saint Patrick was the man who started a Christian movement in Ireland? Probably not.

Saint Patrick, when a young man, was taken prisoner to Ireland. After five years he managed to escape and went to England. During this time he had become much interested in Christianity and felt it was his duty to pass his learnings on to others. He became a bishop and went back to Ireland. He was very influential with the Irish people and his name has lasted thru the ages.

Many mythical tales have been associated with Saint Patrick. It has been said he rid-ded Ireland of the snakes and toads.

This year let's each one remember the true significance of Saint Patrick's day, and take it upon ourselves to work for the betterment of our home, school, and country.

PET SUPERSTITIONS

Here it is Friday the thirteenth again. We've been inquiring around old M.H.S. and here are a few superstitions our students have:

Frank Whittemore says that he never laces his football shoes all the way up when he is going to play in a game.

Marjorie Schluntz avoids black cats.

Bill Kempshall gave his superstition in one word--"Women!" Well, we've never heard that one before, but maybe he's got something there.

Charlotte Smith walks the other way when she meets a black cat, too.

Charles Maxfield says he is superstitious of red-heads. We didn't think that was exactly the word for it.

PURELY INSULTS

If anybody says you're looking good, Frank--slug him!

You're looking well yourself, Dick--who's your embalmer?

Is that your face--or is it still Hallowe'en?

Get in the backseat, your face is a menace to oncoming motorists!

Oh, why don't you bore a hole in yourself and let the sap run out?

You've got a face that's holding up television.

When it comes to yours, I've seen better specimens in glass jars.

First Angel: And how did you get here?

Second Angel: Flu.

LOVE LORN

Dear Prune:

How air yoo, old gel? In case yoo don't reconise the writin'--it air me--P. U., yoor old boy friend. I has been thinkin' about you qwite regular, Jughead, and I has been wondring if yoo ever think about me and remember the good times we had afor we split up. It sure were swell, warn't it? Remember when I used to take yoo rowin'? Yoo got so yoo could row a boat real well, didn't yoo? And then I used to come over to yoor house and sing to yoo while yoo milked and plowed. Them were sure the good old days, warn't they?

How about yoo and me taking up with each other again, Babe? We could have lots of fun ridin' around in me old Model T. It don't have no tires but that's more fun, anyway. We can just ride around on the rims. It sure makes a powerful noise.

Yours truly,
P. U.

Lear Sir:

You needn't have bothered to waste what little brain power you have in writing to me, and I wish you wouldn't lie to me--saying you think about me. P. U., I went with you for six months and I know you can't think. Don't try to fool me.

As for going out with you--why I wouldn't go out with you again for a bag of sugar. Why I still limp from the time you made me push the Model T up Irish Hill just because you were too lazy to get out and crank the thing. And then the time you took me to the Bijou to see a movie and took your shoes off--they started the air raid sirens and a blackout just because they thought the enemy was attacking with stink bombs. I never was so embarrassed in all my life.

P. U., I find it impossible to take up with you again.

Goodbye forever, I hope,
Prudence Fuddydiddy

SENIOR ON PARADE

Phyllis Lanning has a long list of activities after her name. She is a member of Delta Sigma Delta, Epsilon Pi, glee club, mixed chorus, girls' sextet, Vox and Quill staffs', and the honor roll. She likes to sleep, go to the movies and eat chocolate. When she gets angry, she says the first thing that pops into her head. Her hobby and chief interest is art. She would like to go to college next year.

We salute you, PHYLLIS LANNING.

Bob Sindelar has little time to waste, for he is a member of Zeta Mu Epsilon, Vox staff, boy's glee club, Delta Sigma Delta, track squad and is a cheer leader. His favorite food is lip-stick--tsk, tsk--and his favorite pastime is enjoying the great outdoors. Bob has made no definite plans for the future, but thinks perhaps he'll get a defense job or join the navy.

Hats off to you, BOB SINDELAR.

Mathematics Class

Mathematics may be lots of fun
For those who know how it is done
But I just sit and dream of late While Mr. Pantry explains a postulate.

I don't know much about an axiom,
But I guess I get the maximum.
I don't know why I am so dumb;
It might be because I just twiddle my thumb.

One Teacher In A Million

A little boy got up to make
His speech in English class.
He was very unlucky because--
He was first instead of last.
First he shook a little, and then
He shook a little more.
He was so nervous that he wanted
To sink right through the floor.
He opened wide his mouth, as though
He was going to shout,
But instead only air came out.

Now he was so terribly scared,
That he didn't know what to say.
And then without thinking he said,

"This is kind of a lousy day."
First he stood on one foot
And then upon the other,
And then he wished that he was home
With his little baby brother.

The teacher said, "Now Johnny,
can't you

Think of what to say?"
He replied, "No, but maybe I can
Some other day."

Now she was a very nice teacher,
And also very sweet.

Because she told Johnny that he Could go and take his seat.

JOKES

The farmer and his daughter went to market with butter and eggs, and after selling out were attacked by bandits. The farmer wept as he saw his horse and wagon disappear.

"Don't cry," said the daughter
"they didn't get our money, anyway. I put it in my mouth."

"What a clever girl you are--- just like your mother," the farmer said. "I wish she'd been here and we might have saved the horse and wagon."

DELTA SIGMA DELTA

A formal initiation of the twelve new members of Delta Sigma Delta was held Tuesday, March 10, in the home economics room of the Lincoln Building.

About fifty members and their guests were present for the impressive candlelight ceremony during which all candidates received red and gold ribbons.
These ribbons will later be replaced by the gold pin of the National Honor Society. To conclude the ceremony the members signed the register which is a permanent record of all the people who have been members of Delta Sigma Delta since the first initiation fourteen years ago.

After the initiation all the members introduced their guests and refreshments were served by the officers.

FORENSIC

Students taking part in the Forensic contests at Iowa City are: interpretive reading--Marilyn Fontaine, Ruth Frederick, and JoAnne Miller; radio speaking--David Dipple, Mary Alice Kemble, and Barbara Fitzgerald.

ACTIVITIES

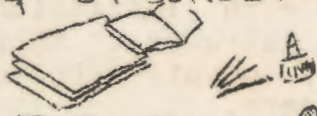

Zeta Mu Epsilon, Junior Academy of Science, held its usual meeting Monday, March 2, in the biology room. Twenty-one members were present. A pep talk to get busy on projects for the convention in the spring was given. Mr. Haupt conducted a demonstration on photography. Marilyn Fontaine started boiling her plastic, which drove some of the delicate nosed ones out.

All members be sure to bring your projects to the next meeting so Mr. Haupt can check them. Remember, that convention isn't far off!

GOSSIP

What junior has Helen Lagerquist got her eye on? You'd be surprised!!

Aren't Patty and Stan doing so well??

Did you see that DeMolay pin Spence has??

What were Strand and Fairley doing Wednesday night? Ask her!!

How is Gibney progressing with his C.R. affairs??

J. Stamy even attracts the eighth-graders!! What a personality.

Poor Kathryn--Dopey is surely independent, isn't he??

Jenny and LaBell slept on a piece of wedding cake to see if they'd dream of their future husbands. Jenny dreamed of Tyrone Power, and LaBell dreamed of Bob Mann. Nice to know what the future has in store for you, isn't it??

Could be that H. Lutz has fallen for G. Caldwell?

Chamberlain seems to like the senior girls.

Dolores Clemans has a new flame in her heart. Tom G.

Towers, Stark, Jacobs, Cooney, McConaughy, Van Fossen, Vahl, Rathje, Tanner, and Price all saw Iowa play Illinois. Ahem!!

Bob Wilber and Leone R. are skating along swell. (so far)

Still M. Smith and Covington??

Some of the Marion fellows did all right with the chorines. Did you see the little red-head Burton had Wednesday night?

Why were seven senior girls late Thursday afternoon?

What about those six that got stuck in town Sunday night???

Bill Failor and Elaine M. seem to be a pretty steady item. She has two of his pins, and they took in the show the other night.

What is Rita Remington so excited about? Could it be that picture of someone from Burlington?

Don't get the wrong idea about Elaine M. giving things to Kellogg. His C. R. girl wanted to save postage.

Some people walk through the cemetery during their spare time.

Thomas sat by Stamy in the show Friday night!!!

Fern Tilton is keeping up the morale. She has one in the army, one in the navy, and one in defense work!!

Who writes Reva F. all those notes??

What about Ike Miller and Bob Buckner in biology??

J. Kemble says he'll keep quiet from now on.

Why is V. Miller putting lipstick marks on letters???

A. Etzel can't seem to make up his mind whether it's Gerry K. or Janice H. or don't we know??

Ardyce! What's this we hear about your "one-arm driving"? Why not let Dick take care of the radio?

Did you know that Schmykle was in town Tuesday? Eileen did. ~~WIDE OPEN!~~

SPORTS

JOKEES

MONTICELLO

Friday, February 27, the Marion Indians traveled to Monticello to play a basketball game. The final score was Monticello, 36; Marion, 22. Kellogg was high point man for Marion with ten points and Hogan was high point man for Monti. This was the last game scheduled for Marion this year.

MARION 17-McKINLEY 36

The Marion junior and sophomore team was taken to a cleaning in the tournament games by McKinley, after they held very well the first quarter. The team as a whole didn't show quite its usual fight, but there is plenty of promise for next year. McCalley was high man with 8 points even though he was guarded by two and sometimes three or four-men.

The tournament was won Saturday night by Franklin in the A class and Center Point in the B class.

GIRLS' TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Bogart's Smarties--21, Halley's Hornets--14.
Pouncers--17, Fighting Irish--23.

QUARTER NOTES

Play-off for soloists in band will be held sometime during the last week in March. The hopeful contestants from the clarinet section are; Barbara Seger, Jean Scott, and Richard Awbrey. The basses are; Wayne Manson, Bob Palmer, and Hal Kinser. The horn section will have a very hot contest with Mary Alice Kemble, Jim Kemble, and Bob Hanson flying their colors.

Landlord (to prospective tenant): You know we keep it very quiet and orderly here. Do you have any children?

Tenant: No.

Landlord: A piano, radio, or victrola?

Tenant: No.

Landlord: Do you have any musical instruments? Do you have a dog, cat or parrot?

Tenant: No, but my fountain pen scratches a little sometimes.

Customer: My goodness, eggs are high!

Grocer: Sure, part of the National Defense Program.

Customer: How?

Grocer: All the hens are making shells.

Marian: My, but this floor is slippery.

Hank: Floor nothing, I shined my shoes if that's what you mean?

Plunkett: Were you surprised when you got the nomination?

Conroy: I'll say. My acceptance speech nearly fell out of my hand.

Mother: When I looked out the window, Johnny, I was glad to see you playing with Billy.

Johnny: We wasn't playing marbles, Ma. We just had a fight, and I was helping him pick up his teeth.

Tom: I'll match wits with you any day.

Dick: O.K. Let's start now, I'll check mine at the door so we will start out even.

He: Oh, all you say goes in one ear and out the other.

She: What's to prevent it?
