CONTEST

Today Miss Wilcox and her musicians depart for Monticello, there to render themselves praiseworthy in various phases of vocal music. The mixed chorus, boys' glee club, and mixed quartet, having won first at last year's state contest, should do well this year. Add to these several promising soloists and groups, Marion should win many firsts out of her thirteen attempts.

Tomorrow Mr. Lyman and the band hope to further swell the list. A state-winning woodwind quintet and French horn quartet, several soloists, and other groups make twenty Marion entrants in the instrumental division.

Six soloists, by virtue of having won state contests in previous years, are ineligible for state competition, but will compete in a special national honors division at the state contest at Oelwein. They are: tenor soloist, Gene Jacobs; flute soloist, Lois Parks; oboe soloist, Ethel Coon; baritone soloist, June De Wees; clarinet soloist, Gene Dunn; and drum soloist, Bob LeVin.

THE TURNING

"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love." Tennyson.

Ya know, that guy must have been a sage. The quote is still good. Now don't get me wrong, girls. Thoughts of love of baseball, of track, and of golf are all filling the minds of earnest young athletes. Some of the dreamers are even thinking of next year's basketball or football season.

What else can they think of in the spring?

Oh! but no. Don't suppose anyone would think of studying. On second thought, it might be love that's causing all those vacant stares.

However, Tennyson should have written it thusly: "In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of what a woman's been thinking of all winter."

--Bob Chamberlain

SOPHOMORE PARTY

About sixty sophomores, teachers, and others attended the sophomore skating party at Ce-Mar last Tuesday from 7:30 to 9:30.

Although several individuals were frustrated (also prostrated) in their first feeble attempts at roller skating, everyone had a good time and we all hope that future parties will be as successful as this one.

Does an egg break when you squeeze it? For the answer ask G. Hyde, B. Kellogg, or D. Dippel. They've had experience!!

Seniors on Parade

Our senior girl this week is a member of Dramatic Club, Junior Academy of Science, Delta Sigma Delta, Glee Club, Honor Roll, and Vox and Quill Staffs. Two things she likes to do are eat "goodies" from a pastry shop and wear green. She plans to go to Iowa University next year and major in English and dramatics. Her favorite pastime is making scrap-books.

We salute you, MARILYN FONTAINE

The senior boy this week likes chocolate pie, and in his leisure time enjoys a good show. He doesn't have much free time, for Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Boys' Quartet, bass solo, and football take care of that. He would like to go to Iowa State College and become a veterinary. Eventually he wants to get married.

Hats off to you, MAC TOWERS.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

After much thought and many tribulations the senior play, "It Happened Next Tuesday," has been cast and rehearsals begun.

Leading roles are taken by: Keith Stark, Tom Jones; Jean Stamy, his wife; Bonnie Carey, his oldest daughter; and Bob Wainwright, his son-in-law. Also in the cast are: Eileen Schenken, the youngest daughter; Kathleen Mullaley, the colored cook; Mary Alice Kemble, Jones' maiden sister; Patty Peck, the son's sweetheart; Gene Jacobs, Jones' only son; Gene Dunn, Reverend Lynch; and Albert Van Fossen, Deke Locksley.

The play will be given the seventh and eighth of May.

POETRY -

I never get my father's car
To drive around at night,
And he just sits around and smirks,
Of course to his delight.

One night I drove it to the show,
And just to see how fast it'd go,
I passed four cars, all in a row-
You should have seen that V-8 go.

And cruising up beside me came
A highway cop, I knew his name,
But law is law, and law is right,
And I got the car no other night.

A tip to all you kids that drive;
Your father's car at eighty-five-
It never gets you anywhere,
For highway cops don't have a care.

I'd rather be well than sick,
It makes you feel like heck,
The doc comes in,
The thermometer's read,
And before you know it you're sentenced to bed.

The bed feels hard;
Your back begins to break;
Then comes the other fella
To take your Sunday date.
So you see, by heck
I'd rather be well than sick.

ACTIVITIES

ZETA MU EPSILON

Zeta Mu Epsilon met Tuesday night in the biology room to discuss the coming convention at Mt. Pleasant. The following people plan to attend it: Barbara Fitzgerald, Eileen Schenken, Tom and Ray Gallagher, Marilyn Fontaine, Glenn Caldwell, Bob Zingula, Bob Mann, Bill Kempshall, Earl Bohlen, Clarence and Paul Bosenberg. We hope to come home with the sweepstakes prize, for we have a wide collection of projects: model airport, transmission and fluid drive, demonstration of a heating plant, plastic, micro-projection, plants, rabbit skeleton, printing boxes, model house and landscape, and demonstration gasoline engine.

FORENSIC MEET

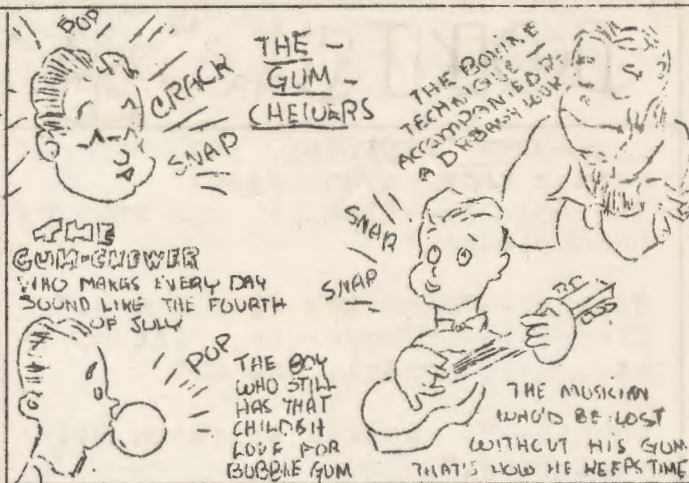

About 5:30 Saturday morning the group of radio speakers and interpretive readers left for Iowa City.

When we arrived we went to the Iowa Memorial Union, and from there part of us went to the University High School for the interpretive reading, and the radio speakers, to the radio studio. Winners for radio speaking were announced at the forensic luncheon, which we didn't attend.

After lunch at the Memorial Union we went to Schaeffer Hall. Here the winners of interpretive reading were announced, and several of them read their selections.

We all agreed that it had been a very worth while experience.

Employer--"Anything you can do better than anyone else?"

Van Fossen---"Yes, I can read my handwriting."

Teacher--"Name the five zones."

Sindelar---"Temperate, intemper-ate, war, postal, and O."

Bonnie--"I walked thirteen miles yesterday."

Eileen--"For goodness' sake."

Bonnie--"Yes."

Mrs. B.--"Mary, can you tell me the difference between perserverance and obstinacy?"

Ives--"One is a strong will, and the other is a strong won't."

Marilyn-----"Say, waiter, this steak isn't very tender."

Kemble--"Well, did you expect it to put its arms around your neck and kiss you?"

Patty Peck--"I'd like to see the captain of this ship."

Sailor--He's forward, Miss."

Patty--"That's all right. This is a pleasure trip."

Teacher: What is a comet?

Pupil: A star with a tail.

Teacher: Very good. Now give me the name of one.

Pupil: Mickey Mouse.

Diner (to waiter): What's the name of the selection the orchestra is playing?

Waiter: "Go Feather Your Nest."

Diner: Go jump in the lake! I asked you a civil question.

Caesar: Brutus, go get me a dozen apples.

Brutus: Okay, Caesar.

Caesar: (after Brutus has returned): Hey Brutus, you only brought me ten. Et to Brute?

Fuddyduddy

Dear Miss Fuddyduddy:

Here I am salted away at a training camp with no pretty girls around. Not even a letter do I get. Oh, woe, Fud, what shall I do?

A Lonesome Soldier

Dear Soldier Boy:

You sweet little thing. I just know what you want even if you are too shy to tell me, and I give you my word I'm coming down to see you on the next train. Then you'll be happy, won't you, or won't you?

I feel that we have something in common, Soljie. You see, I belong to the WOFFHDBPUP which means--Women's Organization for Furthering Home Defense by Picking Up Pins. We are a hustling, courageous group of girls (by some we are called hens) and already I have been made a First-class Goon, (which isn't much change).

Don't be lonesome. Your Fuddy is hurrying to you.

Sincerely,
Prudence Fuddyduddy

SENIOR AMBITIONS

Ardyce Quass--become a nurse.

Marilyn Fontaine--be a college professor and teach English and dramatics.

Charlotte Smith--a nurse or a costume designer or----a housewife.

Patty Peck--a private secretary in a great, big building.

LaDell Nickelson--a beauty operator or a stenographer.

Wilbur Clark--I'm going to be a movie star.

Bill Vahl--Marry a sweet little girl and be a farmer.

Chamberlain's batting average is still zero!! No runs, no hits, and three errors.

Gossip Column :

Well! Well! Gleason just secured an "M" sweater. And he's only been gone a week!

Who is Marvin Rathje going steady with in Cedar Rapids?

Three line-ups for the Junior-Senior Banquet are Van Fossen and Schenken, Jacobs and Carey, McConaughy and Lanning. They're not taking any chances!

Sure is tough for Mary--Jack has another year of school.

A dance should be given so everyone could see what the other person's Easter bonnet looks like.

What junior was D. Hutton out with Sunday night?

Is H. Hutton having trouble avoiding someone from Springville?

Is Earl Hulshizer going to help Kathryn forget Billy?

Did you see the box of candy Elaine M. got for Easter? It was from the same one.

The long way is the sweetest when you're with Hutton, eh, Gene?

Notes intercepted-----Jean Clapp to Joe Derflinger-----hmm

Another one of cupid's arrows hit its mark--M. Towers and E. Bohlken.

Luedemann walked in at the Music Concert and W. Clark appeared from nowhere. How that boy does get around!!

A secret--B. Wilbur does alright--L. Reynolds and J. Stamy in one week. Who's next, Bob?? The line forms at the right.

WHAT THE CATS SAY!!

Ask Peck and M. Towers where they like to park.

We hear B. Chamberlain is also a good swimmer.

D. Dipple and B. Morris were out together Monday night. Are you stepping out on Him, Betty??

Ask Tony K. who has his "M" sweater? It's for keeps, too!

We hear Otto escorted Faye Parks home the other night.

Two new couples seen last night--Mark F. and D. Soenksen's little sister, V. Balster and La Dell's little sister!

Marvin Rathje with Ruth and Frances Monday night.

What were all the smiles for third hour between B. Morris, D. Clemons and M. Rathje?? What's cookin'!!!!

10 girls---hike---climax---BLISTERS!!

Ask Monroe and Nickolsen where they like to go, Beaver or Ellis Park.

Who put the red paint on the back of F. Tanner's car? Yahooty maybe.

B. Mann has a flame in C. R. but he still likes to go to Onslow.

Ask P. Benedict what is so special about that 42 class ring.

What's this--J. Gibney & ?? at show Friday night!!!

Well, I guess A. Etzel has finally made up his mind--Guess who!! It's Janice Hutchinson. I wonder who's amazed at this.

SPORTS

SPRING SPORTS

The spring sports are already in full swing with one game played in baseball and the state indoor meet over. The track squad is shaping up, and it looks strong in the relays and field events. Some of the men most counted on by Mr. Risse are: dashmen, McEnany, Smith, Neuenwander and 2 or 3 other underclassmen. Ted Davin, Burns, Zingula and Thomas are the most likely hurdle prospects. In the distance runs, strength is shown by Sindelar, Mitchell, Wilbur, Oxley, and Stephenson. The most promising 440 men are Rauch and Kemble.

The baseball team won from Alburnett one to nothing last Friday. They show a well rounded team with Buckner and D. Davin dividing the pitching duties.

Let's all back our sports!

Girls' Basketball Tournament

The last game of the girls' intramural basketball tournament has been played, the victories counted, and the standings published. Here they are:

1-(tie)	Shoot It To Me	(310)
	Squaws	(302)
3-----	Fighting Irish	(306)
4-----	Coffman's Cuties	(206)
5-----	Pouncers	(209)
6-(tie)	Spitfires	(209)
	Bogart's Smarties	(115)
8-(tie)	Champs	(210)
	Halley's Hornets	(308)
10-----	Comets	(207)

When you rush your work too fast, you may get through in time to do it over again.

Don't laugh at those who make mistakes, or stumble by the way, for you are apt to follow them--and almost any day.
