JNDLANS, DOWN CARDINALS

Preparing for their Homecoming game with Manchester, the pennant hungry braves from Marion tripped a Maquoketa team, 25-6.

Lady Luck was on hand when the Indians kicked off to the Cardinals. Recovering the kick, the Indians pushed down field to the one where Williams scored. In the second quarter Rathje showed his running skill when he ran 55 yards for the second TD for the Indians. Again in the quarter Marion scored when Gable went over the line via the quarterback sneak. The rolled quarter third and so did the around Indians when Rathje toted the pigskin for the final six of the evening. Maquoketa's only score came in the fourth period when Veit crossed the goal.

event of main The Homecoming week will be the football game Friday night between the Marion Indians and the Manchester Manhawks. Between halves the queen candidates will be presented, but the. identity of the queen will be kept secret until the coronation ceremony at the dance after the game in the school gymnasium. All members of the student body, their dates and the school alumni are invited. Senior class candidates are Pat Armstrong, Laura Lee Freeman and Bette Larson; Juniors, Marjorie Lala and Helen Richmann; Sophomores, Margaret Evans and Marilyn Le Clere; Freshmen, Mary Ruth Culbert and Nadine Manson.

PEPRALLIES

A snake dance and pep meeting was held Thursday night in charge of the school's cheerleaders. The Homecoming assembly program will be given at 3:00 this afternoon in the Lincoln auditorium. It will have an Indian theme, with Indian dancing, music and plays. High school alumni are invited. What are you going to wear? Whom are you going to the dance with? Who do you think the queen will be?

Yup! Those questions can mean only one thing. Homecoming is approaching. Plans are getting well under way now in preparation for the big day. Our assurance of things running as smoothly as ever is our committee chairmen, Sue Cary, Mary Ann Ross and Willis Schmell. Eddy Scott and his orchestra will provide the music for the dance.

How did all this begin, you ask? Well now, I'll tell you. Way back in 1929 the Marion businessmen thought it would be good advertising and stimulate interest in our football to have a Homecoming in Marion.

Marion's game with Mount Vernon on Armistice Day was a perfect time to have it because the people had a holiday and would provide a better crowd for Marion Merchants. Since then it has grown so in popularity and sentiment that our Homecoming dance and game of today are greatly anticipated.

Incidentally, Marion beat Mount Vernon. I hope we beat Manchester. VOX

Now that Homecoming has finally burst upon us, don't you think we should all try to start sort of a clean-up compaign? To start it off let's begin with our lockers and give them a thorough cleaning. This would probably tend to keep the floor a little more spic and span after all of Mr. Lang's hard work. Let's not be another Fibber McGee and get snowed under every time we open the door to our locker.

Also, to reduce the seemingly unpreventable task of picking up half the contents of your notebook after it has crashed to the floor, why not get rid of all the excess notes and papers in our little briefcases?

All in all, let's clean up our little rea schoolhouse before the Big Night.

HOMECOMING

Smoke in the air, leaves on the ground, football on everyone's tongue and mind--it all adds up to Homecoming. Homecoming is the time when graduates come back to the halls, rooms, teachers, to remembrances of happy hours and jobs well done in M.H.S. School is a place they are proud to return to, and we are proud to welcome them. Will it be such a place to you?

School occupies a very short period in our lives, so let's make the most of it. Let's use the opportunities for fellowship, fun, knowledge, development of skills in sports and music--preparations for the future offered by high school. Although we take these opportunities for granted, there are many young people in the world who would give anythings for the chance offered you as part of your American heritage.

So take football, fall, Homecoming, and enjoy them. Take your school books and use them. Make your school days happy, worthwhile ones, days you'll be happy to return to at Homecoming.

This year the Juniors had considerable difficulty in choosing a ring which satisfied the whole class. A beautiful ring design was chosen by an overwhelming majority. But then a choice between an Indian head or M.H.S. on the ring was given and voted upon.

With a vote of 48 to 24 against the Indian head it looked like the issue was closed. But a revote was called for and this time the backers of the Indian head won by a slim 43 to 39 margin. 16.202

If anyone wants to buy any nightcrawlers, just contact Bob Williams, world famous night crawler hunter. He has big juicy ones at only five cents apiece. The offer is limited to girls only.

And speaking of Willy, could it be that sitting at the same table in biology class is the beginning of a new romance between Willy and Mary Tucker? But what's a girl to do if she sits at a table with no other girls?

Dick Franklin may be new in school, but he doesn't need to be lonesome with Caroline Tallman around.

A good theme song for Bob Bader would be "Two Loves Have I".

Did you know that Edwin Carlson has a secret admirer in the junior class?

Dorothy L. may be gone from the halls of M. H. S., but she isn't gone from Dick Johnson's heart.

Joann McGowan seems to be having a hard time deciding between a certain senior and a certain junior. Or does she have to decide?

Agnes M. and Billy F.---another tandem?

If you heard bloodcurdling yells Thursday night, the sixth, it was probably the unfortunate victims being initiated into Dramatic Club.

Harvard is a long way away, but Barrie G. seems to be seeing that she doesn't get lonesome.

There are many advantages to being able to play the piano, according to Margie Morningstar. Especially if you are accompanist for the Boys' Glee Club.

What would Shirley Jackson talk about if it weren't for Don?

If you see Helen Richmann concentrating hard, she's either doing her shorthand or writing to Rudy. Ask Arlene Stroope where she got her new comb. It's quite an interesting story. Or if you don't see her, ask Billy Nielson.

Someone ought to start a Sam Baez Fan Club. There certainly seem to be enough girls who would like to join it.

Bob: My girl's father doesn't like me.

Don: On what grounds does he object to you?

Bob: On any grounds within ten miles of the house.

That time is here again.

That time is here again. What time? Why, HOMECOMING, of course. Undoubtedly Manchester is going to try to mar it for us as they tried in 1939 (Marion 26, Manchester 0) and in 1947 (Marion 19, Manchester 0).

Tonight we have the chance to make history repeat itself, if everybody shows up at the game tonight with the kind of school spirit our team deserves.

Then comes the best part of the night, at least to the girls: the DANCE. Slow, dreamy music, handsome men, soft lights, handsome men, beautiful corsages, handsome----you know what I mean, definitely a romantic atmosphere.

Can't you see it all now? There is George M. over in that corner cutting a rug with his current hearthrob; and Norma telling Bobby she'd "rather sit this one out"; and Mr. and Mrs. Waltmire gliding (like a fast express) across the dance floor. And another thing---everybody is dancing !!! Absolutely no wallflowers or pansies (that's a boy wallflower). It seems that all the boys finally decided that they came to a dance to dance, 'bout time.

You can all see what a good time can be had. Since it comes but once a year, let's all make the most of it. Page L
