Mrs. Deeds To Retire After 30 Years

Mrs. Deeds is Camera Shy

Mrs. Winifred Deeds, an English teacher at Marion high school for over 30 years, is planning to retire at the completion of this school year.

Mrs. Deeds has taught freshman, sophomore, junior and senior English. She was the supervisor for the Quill for 18 years, and has also managed speech and dramatic art activities.

When asked her plans for next year, Mrs. Deeds said that she and her husband plan to travel, and "do as little as possible."

The Vox speaks for the entire student body and everyone connected with Marion high school in saying "We would like to thank Mrs. Deeds for her dedication, faith, loyalty, and distinguished service to MHS over the years."

The name, Winifred Deeds, on the faculty list of Marion high school has distinguished and honored the history of this school.

We regret her leaving this school system but wish her luck in all her future endeavors.

Mrs. Deeds has been a strong pillar in Marion's Foundation for many years. This school and this city will not soon forget her. Good Luck, Mrs. Deeds.

"Prom 1970"

Prom was held in the Marion High School gym on Saturday, May 16, 1970.

Thanks to the work put in by the Junior class the gymnasium was transformed into an enchanted ballroom complete with running fountain and flickering candlelight.

In keeping with the theme "The Age of Aquarius", the walls were decorated with large posters depicting the various signs of the zodiac and on the west wall the words to the song "Aquarius" were written.

Music was provided by the 20th Century Ltd.

Prom favors were tie clasps for the boys and a box of stationery (with sealing wax and stamp set) for the girls.

All in all Prom 1970 was a tremendous success.

"Honors Night"

This year, a total of fifty-three students were initiated into these societies, and thirty students were presented awards for their achievements in the fields of speech and debate.

Tuesday night, May 12, was an evening of excitement and honor as Marion High School held its annual Honors Night Festivities. Honors Night is a special night designated to recognize those students who have done outstanding work in the fields of speech, journalism, drama, or leadership, scholarship and service. Students who have demonstrated such ability in these areas are deservedly initiated into the organizations of Quill and Scroll, Thespians, or National Honor Society, or are presented with special awards.

Special Awards from the homemaking and science departments were also presented as Anita Johnson received the Crisco Award, Marilyn Von Behren received the Betty Crocker Award, and Dallas Courtney received the Bausch and Lomb Science award. Jean Vickroy, received the Homemaking Service award, and Margaret Boquist was awarded a 4-year national merit scholarship from Readers Digest.

Refreshments were served by members of the homemaking classes.

Three Juniors First in MHS History

Three Juniors First in MHS History Selected to Experiment in International Living.

This year, three Marion High School students, Rhonda Carmichael, Shirley Blockhus and Mary Lee Carr were chosen to participate in the Experiment in International Living. This is really a great honor since no one from Marion High School has ever been selected before.

The experiment in International Living is the oldest and largest non-profit educational institution of its kind. It offers young Americans the rare and memorable experience of living as a native in another land and culture. It does this through a variety of tested "homestay", travel, study and language-learning programs.

The first of these groups went to Switzerland in 1932. Since then more than 50,000 young people from 100 nations have explored another country from the inside out, by living abroad as a member of a family.

Mary Lee's plans have changed and she is unable to go, but Rhonda is going to Ireland and Shirley to Italy. Rhonda's four-week homestay location will be either Dublin or Cork. During her two-week travel period, she will probably attend performances at the famous Abbey Theater, and see several of the traditional Irish folk dances. Other trips

"Teresa Alonso"

This corner is dedicated to a Spanish girl by the name of Maria Teresa Alonso. Teresa, as we all know, has been our AFS student for the 1969-70 school year. Everyone has seen that smiling face in and about Marion High School.

Teresa has helped us all. She has bridged a gap from across the ocean. Through her, we have all felt a kinship to the young people of Spain. We have learned what life in Spain is really like. For the Spanish students, she has been a lifesaver who has nursed them back to health after a bad bout with the past subjunctive. We all have our cherished memories of Teresa.

The year has gone quickly and Teresa must return to Spain. Her visit to the United States is coming to an end. Our memory of Teresa will not end with the school year, but go on with each new year.

The Vox staff, student body, and faculty would like to thank Teresa for her excellent year as AFS student and to wish her the very best of luck next year and all the years that follow. We will never forget her.

Muchas gracias, adios, y vayas con Dios . . . .

Teresa Alonso Smiles Through It All

"The Forensic League Does It Again"

By Roxanne Kucera

On April 16 and 17 Marion's Forensic League was in competition on the SUI campus in Iowa City.

Future Nurses

Upon the date of May 7 and 8, 17 girls and 3 mothers boarded a chartered bus for Rochester, Minn. They stayed at a Holiday Inn Thursday evening. Then continuing their trip and reaching their goal, they toured the Mayo Clinic in Rochester and the Mayo Museum. They also toured a new Methodist Hospital. This field trip was the climax of the Future Nurses Association.
 This brings another thought to mind. Next year, FNA will have a new name. The highly suggested name is Health Careers.
 The club will be reorganized in the fall with the election of officers.
 The name, Future Nurses, limited the students to becoming nurses. Now the idea is for anyone medically inclined or with any thoughts about health occupations to join this club, further her knowledge, gain experience and help herself toward her goal.

FTA Activities

Looking over the past years of FTA's activities, two new programs have been set up. A teacher's assistance and a tutoring program were established after a teacher's survey. These programs are offered to all FTA members and the sophmores have contributed much this year.
 The new officers are Rae Ann McLean, president; Carlene Ulferts, vice-president; Peg Bowen, secretary; and Sue Mangold, treasurer.
 With the new programs and the new officers FTA seems will in hand for next year.

 Eileen McDonnell, Beth Ford, and Karen Mulford, fourth place rating in Business Knowledge and Current Events.
 Pat Haas, honorable mention in amateur typewriting.
 On May 7 the members of FBLA met at their sponsor's house, Mrs. Ruth Henderson, for a potluck. Twenty girls attended.
 On May 14 the following girls were elected to office: Marybeth Mobbs, president; Carol Seng, secretary; and Wendy Miner, treasurer. They will assume their duties at the beginning of the next school year.

Paul Caldwell & Co.

Paul Caldwell - - -

On Thursday, May 14, the Student Senate sponsored a program for the student body. It was a group called "Paul Caldwell and the Caddells." The group was composed of eight men, three girls, and Paul Caldwell.

Their program was composed of country and western, and popular songs as well as some instrumental solos. The songs were interspersed with quaint humor. Paul Caldwell, the leader gave the student body an effective speech about our country's unrest, followed by "This Hand Is Mine," the theme song from Exodus.

At the end of the program Paul Caldwell sent out a plea to the students for new talent, those accepted would accompany the group on their summer tour. Several Marion High students auditioned, one of whom, Dave Williams, may be accepted.

This was the first time the troupe had appeared in Iowa.

Danny Balster anchors 880 leg at District to send Indian relay team to state.

Band News

The band got a second this year for the first time in eighteen years. Now its up to the next year's band to start the string anew. Last Thursday, May 21, the band had their band picnic. Awards were given out and next year's officers were announced. Next year's captains will be Jan Renfer, Ken King, and Nancy Sebern.

The band will play two more concerts this year. We will play Memorial Day and at Commencement. At the Commencement concert Mike Walke will play an alto sax solo.

Teachers Leaving

Three teachers, Miss Judy Ravensberg, Mr. Gary Knutsen, and Mr. Richard Smith are leaving the Marion High School faculty for other fields of endeavor, travel, continued education, and teaching position. We wish them the best of success and happiness.

Thank You Note

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Studtmann, the administration, and the faculty for cooperation given to us of the Vox staff this year. Maybe there is yet hope against too much indifference toward too many extracurricular activities in this school. I would like to commend Dallas Courtney for his fine and dedicated work during the three years he has worked for the Vox.

Good luck wishes go to Karen Hansen and Sue Moyer.
