

MARION
HIGH SCHOOL

"Honors Night, 1972"

By Jana Grady

"Honors Night, May 4" was to be found inscribed on the red and gold programs made by the art department for the annual Honors night, 1972. Three honorary organizations, Quill and Scroll, Thespians, and Honor Society, took in new initiates, with the vows given by the advisors and officers of each club.

Honors Night is to give due recognition to those students who have been actively participating in a phase of school activity, such as drama, music, or writing, and also give honor to those students who have done outstandingly in certain areas.

Several special awards preceded the club initiations. These were: the Science Award presented to Steve Jensen by Mr. Rinas, the Bar Association Award for Citizenship to Bob Sixta, and the National Merit Scholarship Awards presented by Mrs. Walker to Peg Bowen, Jill Hunt and Jim Clark.

The following students were then initia-

IN THIS ISSUE. . .

This is our final issue for 1971-72 and you'll read what the graduates are leaving behind as they leave the halls of Marion High. Check the Senior's Plans to see who else is doing what you're doing next fall. Club round-ups and a few extra-curricular articles are also included. We've tried to do our best for the paper and can only hope it's been good enough.

ted into the three honorary clubs.

QUILL AND SCROLL-VOX: Peg Bowen, Jill Hunt, Jana Grady; Quill: Nancy Griffin, Janet Campbell, Debbie Long, Andrea Marg; Sponsors: Mr. Dale Pickering, Mrs. Ruth Studdtman. THESPIANS: Best Thespian Award: Mike Wood, Initiates: Kerry Brachett, Elizabeth Frye, Janet Gallagher, Gary Hoag, Marie Kriegermeier, Pam Olsen, Marcia Renfer, Kim Reynolds, Randy Wade, Ken Walton; Sponsor: Mrs. Marian Hulin. NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY-Seniors: Laurie Johnson, Judy Grishaber, Deanna Feddern, Kathy Power, Michelle Klink, Debbie Herdliska, Beverly Prostine; Juniors: Gwen Barnes, Julie Taylor, Barbara Maier, Steve Hay, Marcia Renfer, Roma Ellwood, Randy Wade; Sponsor: Mr. Morgan.

Following the ceremony, the Home Ec. Dept., under Mrs. Mentzer, served delicious cookies and punch. A big thanks to all who worked so hard!

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

QUILL & SCROLL INITIATES

THESPIAN INITIATES

Busy Year For Music Dept.

Including a recent annual spring tour for Special Choir, this year has been very busy with activities for the music department which was highlighted with an awards night May 16. The four large groups presented a concert at 7:00 in the high school gym. Awards were then given by Mrs. Hulin, assisted by Mike Wood (Director and Chorus Council President, respectively.) The winners are as follows:

Pins for 120 points: Cindy Trimble, Julie Krizek, Joyce Lanning, Cris McMillen, Cheryl Mefford, Kim Reynolds, Gary Everts, Mary Harbst, Lorna Kucera, Ellen Livingston, Deb McPherson, Patti Mosbarger, Shelly Arjes, Denise Bennett, Teresa Delp, Lynn Everts, Pam Herrington, Wendy Hinker, Susan Kincheloe, Judy McCalmant, Kim Mordorst, LeAnn Weltha, Sandy Wade, Christy Boots, and Connie Power.

Pins for 250 Points: Peg Bowen, Liz Frye, Deb Snyder, LaDonna York, Jon Derflinger, Di'Mar Barker, Kim Johnson, Kim Nelson, Rick Thomas, Brad Pedersen, Gwen Barnes, Janet Gallagher, Marie Kriegermeier, Barb Maier, Darlene Oakley, Jodi Petersen and Kyleen Trout.

Pins for 500 Points: Jana Grady, Kathy Power, Diane Ward, Jeff Preston, Mike Wood, Gary Burkhart, Randy Wade, Bob Hemmingsen, Beth Lusk, Brad Kiburz, Dave Reid, Dennis Schuster, Marcia Renfer, Julie Shontz, and Anita Jones.

Guards for 750 Points: Anita Jones, Diane Ward, Jeff Preston and Mike Wood.

Pins for Division I at State Contest (solos): Diane Ward, Anita Jones, Gary Burkhart, Randy Wade and Jon Ward.

Pins for Division II at State Contest (solos): Jeff Preston, Dennis Schuster, Kathy Power, Sandy Wade and Connie Power.

Special Awards for Special Help: Anita Jones, Liz Frye and Mike Wood.

Arion Award: Diane Ward.

By Debby Miner.

Vox Welcomes New Sponsor, Mr. Bates

The Vox staff welcomes Mr. Jim Bates who will take over the duties of faculty sponsor for the school paper, The VOX. The senior editors with whom he will be working are Wendy Hall and Andrea Marg. They have served as junior editors this past school year.

Mr. Bates has distributed application forms for Vox membership for the next school year. Please give these your prompt and careful consideration.

We wish you success and joy in this experience as VOX faculty sponsor.

Speech Club Honored

By Jan Gallagher

Thursday night, May 11 was the time when all the Speech club participants got together to rehash old victories, show off their battle wounds and receive awards, proving the old adage, "old speech students never quit talking, they just graduate."

The first event of the night consisted of individual speakers showing the strategy that won contests. Then the large groups--choral reading, "Anastasia," "Antic Spring" and "Madwoman of Chailot"--showed the performances that gave them 4 out of 4 State I's, and two Outstanding Performer awards.

The debaters waged a pitched battle in another room. Then everyone gathered in the auditorium for Awards, Testimonials and congratulations all around.

The debaters received awards for Bravery Above and Beyond the Call of Duty, Living Without Sleep, Preparing Cases and Fast Thinking, all rolled into three different debate trophies, since these are some of the ingredients that go into successful debate.

The Commander-in-Chief, Mrs. Swinton, aided by the Klite (Michele Klink and Dave White, presidents of Speech Club), distributed individual medals and awards including 21 State Division I rating certificates and seven Outstanding Performer awards plus various individual awards from Iowa Forensic League and places in other contests from first place on down, too numerous to list, which goes to show what a successful year it's been.

The only trophy that was missing was the WaMaC traveling trophy, but Number 2 (we're in second place this year) tries harder. Next year's Speech Club has its work cut out for it.

"No, Gary, we can't give an award for THAT!"

"Chuckling over a prostitution bill."

"Gee, is that for me?"

FBLA Holds Final Meeting

By Mike Ryan

FBLA held its last meeting for the year on Tuesday night, May 9. The meeting was a dinner meeting at the Ox Yoke Inn in Amana.

After having a delicious meal, the Club elected its president, secretary, and treasurer for next year. The remaining offices will be filled next year from the Junior class. The new officers are as follows:

President--Cindy Dippel; Secretary--Ginny Seng; Treasurer--Barb Fillmore. New business which was brought up concerns the membership of the club for next year. The club voted to open membership to the Sophomore class next year. Heretofore, Club membership was open to only juniors and seniors.

Thank You And Farewell

By Mrs. Studtmann

Six years of working with students as sponsor of the Vox, the school newspaper, has been a rewarding experience for me. I have learned to know many wonderful students on a person-to-person basis and this is great.

To all the members of the Vox staff of 1971-72 I say "thank you" for your work and cooperation during this year and hope that those not graduating will continue to work on the Vox Staff next year.

I wish happiness and contentment to the seniors on the Vox Staff in whatever field of work they choose: Peg Bowen and Julie Klein, Senior Editors; Jana Grady, Features Editor; Dan Begley, Sports Editor; Jill Hunt, and Rich Delp, writers.

Peg and Julie have worked hard to produce interesting issues. Being Senior Editors is not an easy job and so a "special thanks" to them. Because of Julie's other activities and part-time work-study program, she has not been able to put in as much time as she want to. So- to Peg- your initiative, efficiency, untiring efforts, and interest in your job have truly been appreciated.

To all the staff -- Thank you for the lovely flower-plant arrangement with which you surprised me at a special meeting on Monday, May 15. The old-fashioned pitcher and bowl container will serve as a lovely remembrance.

Vox Rounds Out Year

By Peg Bowen

On Monday, May 15 the Vox Staff met in Room 58 for a special meeting. An editor was dispatched to go get Mrs. Studtmann and when she entered the room, everyone cheered and thanked her for the support and excellent guidance she has given the Staff this past year. She was then presented with a small planter which the members had bought for her to express their appreciation. A surprised Mrs. Studtmann gave a short thank-you speech and the meeting was adjourned.

After the large majority of the paperwork for the final issue of VOX had been gotten out of the way, the VOX Staff held a joint year-end picnic with the Quill Staff at Pali-sades Park on Thursday, May 18. Judy Grishaber and Peg Bowen collected money and planned a meal of Kentucky-Fried chicken and soda pop which everyone enjoyed. Mr. Pickering, Quill sponsor, furnished potato chips and Mrs. Studtmann, VOX sponsor, brought bread and cookies. People went on walks and got stuck climbing around caves in the side of cliffs and generally had a good time.

This completes VOX activities until next fall when a fresh batch of ideas are cooked up to brew a new year of newsy issues.

Peg Says: Work's Rewarding

"In store for next year's senior editor-day: Monday through Friday, time: 7:45 until 4:15."

By Peg Bowen
Senior Editor

I want to thank the MHS student body for giving me the opportunity to have served as your senior editor this year. It was a learning experience, a lot of work and very rewarding. On behalf of Julie Klein, your other senior editor, and all those who made VOX what it was, we extend warmest wishes for the best of luck to the graduating seniors in future endeavors, to the administration and teachers for continued good work in the years to come, and to the underclassmen for an enjoyable summer and a nice year next year. Hope to see some of you on the staff, especially those people in typing class that helped complete the work on this issue. We'll need good typists next year too. Keep us in mind. Thanks, again.

Senior Editors admire Mrs. Studtmann's new planter.

"I AM saying 'cheese'."

Certificates Are Issued To Students

Certificates of commendation for their contributions to the yearbook, the Quill, and to the school newspaper, the Vox, were awarded to the following:

The Quill--Jon Derflinger, Judy Grishaber, Sue Lane, and Pam Mullenix.

The Vox--Dan Begley and Julie Klein. Congratulations!

Spanish Learning Includes Mystery

Spanish classes this year have included everything from learning Spanish to singing Christmas Carols in Spanish to reading murder mysteries, and to top things off, one class is even going to give a debate totally in Spanish.

Spanish I classes have been learning how to talk Spanish plus drills. They have been participating in team competition which are games for extra points.

Spanish II classes are reading a murder mystery entitled: "Noche Oscura en Lima" which means in English: "A Dark Night in Lima". During this semester the classes have also been paired off into groups of two and have given reports on each country in Latin America.

Spanish III students have had small group discussions in Spanish of current events. They have also done a complete unit on Mexico (to help get ready for the trip to Mexico).

The Spanish III classes were also proud to have two state winners in the National Spanish Exam held recently on the University of Iowa campus in Iowa City. Jan Gallagher won first place, and Gwen Barnes won third place. Congrats, juniors, on a fine performance.

Spanish IV classes are reading a novel entitled "La Familia de Pascual Duarte" which in English means "The Family of Pascual Duarte." The book is about a man who is a victim of his own environment. They also are writing a series of papers on "Who am I?" The purpose is to get to know themselves better.

Their final assignment is debates given completely in Spanish! These will be given the last week of school. Some of the topics are: Should Marijuana Be Legalized? and The Viet Nam Issue.

Mrs. Prince teaches Spanish I and III. Mrs. Goldstein teaches Spanish II and IV. By Pam Mullenix

10 Will Tour Mexico

By Pam Mullenix

Date: July 22, 1972
Place: Laredo, Texas
Purpose: To tour Mexico and have fun
Transportation: Bus
Return Date: August 11, 1972

Ten juniors are about to embark upon an adventure. They are going to Mexico. The ten juniors who are to represent MHS on the trip are as follows: Gwen Barnes, Paula Chesley, Roma Ellwood, Nancy Griffin, Debbie Long, Bob Hemmingsen, Pam Olson, Jodi Petersen, Marcia Renfer and Crissa Finn.

Among many stops in small towns along the way they will be going to Mexico City, Veracruz, and Guadalajara. Their guides will be B.C. Carter, Spanish teacher at Clear Lake high school, and Miss Marjorie Reynolds, who is a teacher at Long-fellow elementary school here in Marion.

In addition to those students going to Mexico, three of the junior class members have chosen to live in Spanish speaking countries as ambassadors in the "Experiment In International Living Program."

Those juniors are: Susan Lane and Mary Harbst who will both be in Mexico, and Ken Walton who will be going to Argentina.

As an extra bonus another Junior, Barb Maier will be participating in the AFS program in a country to be named later.

We hope all of you have a nice time wherever you are going but watch out for snakes and other native hazards!

Basketball Quiz

Note: The following should be taken with a spoonful of humor. Please do not take it to heart girls; we are truly happy to see girl's basketball at Marion, so please be good sports about it. Good luck next year team, we'll be cheering for you!!

Now that girls' basketball has entered the academic curriculum of Marion High, there have been many suggestions made as to how to make the game more interesting, such as, "sewing pockets into the girl's uniforms so that the players have something to do with their hands during games." There have also been some cruel suggestions like, "next year they should time the games with an hour glass," or "if girls' basketball were a car it would be called an Edsel." But perhaps the crudest cut of all was, "that charging admission to girls' basketball is like making people pay to watch haircuts."

Enough of the sarcasm, though. A quiz has been drawn up to allow the fans a chance to demonstrate their mastery of the game.

Following are nine typical situations one might witness during a girls' basketball game. Numbered below each situation are three interpretations of the action. The object of the test is to match the situation with its most likely interpretation. Here goes now, and may the best interpretation win:

The players of both teams are standing around the court. This means:

- 1--The game is about to start.
- 2--A time-out has been called.
3. One of the teams is staging a furious, come-from-behind rally.

A girl is stationed at the foul line, shooting a ball at the basket.

Therefore:

- 1.--You are watching the victim of a personal foul.
- 2.--You are watching the beneficiary of a technical foul.
3. --You are watching the most exciting part of the game.

Players of both teams running downcourt is significant of:

1. --A fast break
- 2.--A slow break
- 3.--A mad dog at the other end of the floor.

When a coach is seen with his team gathered around him during a timeout:

- 1.--He is telling his players how to break a zone-press.
- 2.--He is telling his players how to install a zone-press.
- 3.--He is telling his players, "This round thing here is what we call a basketball."

Players are jumping high into the air:

- 1--It is a jump ball
- 2.--It is a rebound.
- 3.--It is a mouse.

Two girls holding onto the same ball is a sure sign of:

1. --A jump ball
- 2.--A personal foul
- 3.--A heavy ball.

When the stands rise up as one and begin to yell, you know that:

1. --A turning point in the game has been reached.
- 2.--The cheerleaders are on the floor during a time-out.
- 3.--The vender has run out of hot dogs.

A player is observed bouncing a ball"

- 1--It is a bounce pass.
 - 2--It is a dribble
 - 3--It is a mistake
- Players crying means that:
1. --A team has just lost
 - 2.--A team has just won.
 - 3.--A girl has just announced her engagement.

Take a completed test form, put it in a stamped, self-addressed envelope and mail it. Those scoring under 135 will be drafted. Good Luck.

* I wish to thank, as well as extend my deepest regrets, to Donald Kaul and his book "How To Light a Water Heater and Other War Stories" from which this quiz and several of the "comments" were taken. Again, thank you Donald Kaul.

By Nancy Sufficool
P.S. Just kidding, girls and coach.

Editorial : ANSWERS POLL

TO MHS STUDENTS:

Recently a poll was taken among the majority of the seniors at Marion High regarding graduation exercises. The survey dealt with a number of traditions connected with the ritual of completing the final year of high school and any changes students felt were needed. Although seniors overwhelmingly agreed that the present ceremonies were suitable, a small number found several aspects of graduation they felt should be changed.

Among the dissenting student groups across the nations is the group at Marion that feels graduation as it now stands is outdated. They list as one of their reasons the fact that robes are worn by the graduating seniors. This does not include those who suggested the robe-rental money be used for a charitable cause and seniors dress in otherwise "suitable" attire; it is for those that feel no occasion is worth dressing nicely for. This may not seem like much in itself, but there are those who have a distinct dislike for "formal" dress-formal meaning anything besides blue jeans and sneakers. This attitude was voiced in the vote taken in regard to the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom; although outvoted, some students wanted to go to Prom in blue jeans. . . and there were those who did, creating an unnecessary disruption. So objections to wearing apparel at graduation made-up one suggested change.

Another was that some students didn't like having to sit for thirty minutes to hear a total stranger speak to them on something they knew nothing about. If didn't matter that the courteous reaction would be to sit quietly in order not to distract those who may be listening and glean some words of wisdom from the speech. The protesting students figure that if the speaker were eliminated altogether, they wouldn't have to worry about disturbing those who might otherwise listen.

The third and final objection to commencement exercises is the fact that some people are blindly against tradition in any way, shape or form. When the Establishment is in favor of a situation, in this case graduation proceedings, a minority of people rebel. Even if they would be in favor of the idea themselves, they turn away because they simply reject all authority figures and the stigma attached to them. I'm talking about all dissenters and all causes for dissent. It is said that all that is needed for the world to go bad is for good men to do nothing. It's not graduation that needs to be changed, or the administration, or the war in Viet Nam, or the world in general; it's the people's attitudes and their means of venting their emotions. A sit-in is not the logical step when the administration can not or will not allow graduates to wear blue jeans to commencement. Vandalism and burning buildings are ridiculous methods of demonstrating for peace.

How many times have we heard someone comment on something good, or just, or fair that happened? Not very often. How many times have we let an unreasonable complaint slip by us without setting the person straight? Too often, I'm afraid, for the vast majority of us. All that really needs to be done to combat this problem is to have people learn a little more good old-fashioned respect. Next time someone in a classroom, or a public facility, or anywhere in particular shows a lack of respect, try to teach him some.

Peg Bowen.

THANKS. . .

As VOX faculty sponsor for the last six years, I wish to thank Mrs. Gladys Burrows and the Marion Sentinel for their kind cooperation.

Happiness is - - -

Happiness is driving in two ditches and tuming from the wrong lane on Prom night. CJ DB & Andy.

Happiness is reaching for and finding Heidi. From Homer.

Happiness is a Pestilential Scourge. Signed the Purple Reindeer.

Happiness is spending my senior year with you. Love from J.G. to G.E.

Happiness is not being stuck in Greyhound parking lot with D.B. from 12:30 to 2:30 Prom morning. LA & C.J.
Happiness is a 6 foot brass lamp with 4 speeds.

Happiness is knowing:
A little bit of love, and the knowledge that James Siver digs people all over even if he learned his love in California.

Happiness is being stuck with C.J. from 12:30 to 6:00 prom morning. L.A.
Happiness is not having a sick Spiro Agnew.

(Continued on Page 20)

Annual FTA Banquet Held

The annual FTA Spring banquet was held at the Colony Inn in the Amana Colonies Monday, May 15. Juniors and seniors who had done student teaching in the past year, invited as guests the teachers with whom they had worked. After a delicious and filling meal, this year's president, Sue Mangold, opened the meeting. Pat Kratoska gave a report on the state FTA convention held recently at Ames. She summarized discussion topics considered at the Ames meeting. She mentioned that United States for Action (USA) was one suggestion when name change was proposed.

The musical half of the program was presented. Jana Grady, Anita Jones and Diane Ward composed a division-one state winning trio that sang two selections for the enjoyment of those present. Gwen Barnes then read two humorous readings that amused everyone immensely. Peg Bowen presented the teachers of the year. Both were present as invited guests so neither Mrs. Marilyn Swinton nor Mr. Bruno Rinas knew anything about it beforehand. After registering surprise and pleasure and everyone congratulating Mrs. Swinton and Mr. Rinas, Sue Mangold resumed leadership and introduced the officers for next year. President will be Gwen Barnes, vice-president will be Pat Kratoska and secretary-treasurer will be Pam Swearingen. Mr. Bates was introduced as next year's new co-sponsor of F. T. A.

The meeting was adjourned and, after buying several bags of cherry red licorice, some Pixie sticks and peppermints, the group returned to Marion by car.

By Peg Bowen.

"Mrs. Marilyn Swinton - Teacher of the Year"

"Mr. Bruno Rinas - Teacher of the Year"

Clubs Take End-of-Year Trips

By Wendy Sue Hall

The end of the school year is in sight when all the clubs have, or are in the process of having their end-of-the-year trip!

Friday and Saturday, April 21 and 22, the Model United Nations Club took it's end of the year trip to the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls.

Marion High School's twelve representatives attending gathered there with representatives from other schools around Iowa, and discussed the research they had done on the topics assigned earlier in the year by the UNI.

Friday morning, the members arrived in Cedar Falls at about 11:30 and registered. Then, committee meetings were held for the rest of the day. That night at 12:01 Denise Hunt was given a surprise birthday party, at the Holiday Inn, where the group stayed. Chaperones Mr. Boquist and Mr. Pantini rounded up a cake and candles for the birthday girl.

At 8:00 the next morning, work began again. Members met in general assembly then broke up into committees which lasted until 5:30. This was followed by a banquet. After an educational-yet-fun two days our Model United Nations Club Members returned to Marion High School.

BAND NEWS

By Pam Olson

North Scott High school, Eldridge, Iowa, was the scene May 6 of much excitement as MHS band chalked up another first at state large-group contest, making it 19 wins out of 20 years. The two pieces played were "Festival" by Clifton Williams and "Symphonic Movement" by Vaclar Nelhybel.

Several students will participate Friday, May 26, in an honor band at the Iowa Bandmaster's convention in Cedar Rapids. Under the direction of Dr. Frederick Fennel, the group will play "Incidental Suite" and one other number selected by Dr. Fennel.

The band's final performance of the school year will be at graduation where, along with the Processional and Recessional, they will play Highlights from Gypsy, "Coat of Arms," "Gallant Seventh", and "Symphonic Movements." The stage band will also present two numbers, "Pick Me Up" and "Lament for Joy".

This summer the band will be giving three concerts in the park, alternating with Linn-Mar. The first of these concerts will be played June 9.

Track Team Showed Depth

By Dan Begley

Although placing second in the District meet Friday night at Linn-Mar, behind Independence, the track team showed its strength in relays as well as in individual events.

Team scores: Independence 71; Marion 68-1/2; Prairie 55-1/2; Linn-Mar 45; Williamsburg 29; Vinton 20; LaSalle 12; Grundy Center 8; Waterloo Orange 5; Benton Community 4; Maquoketa Valley 0.

As far as the State meet goes, Marion is sending 13 qualifiers; Gary Bolden, Tim Jones, Gregg Anderson, Terry Skilling, Bruce Witte, Brad Pederson, Randy Weeter, Dave Moore, Jerry Lancaster, Jon Morris, Don Wisniewsky, Bob Manbeck, Randy Wade.

EVENTS: Two mile relay-2nd; 440 medley-2nd; 440 relay-2nd; 880 relay-1st; Mile relay-2nd.

Long jump-Tim Jones, 3rd; High jump-John Barkdoll, 4th. Discus-Gregg Anderson, 3rd; 2 mile-Todd Ewing, 3rd; 120-highs-Gary Bolden, 3rd; 100 yd. dash-Jerry Lancaster, 5th; 220 dash-Tim Jones, 1st; 880 run-Bruce Witte, 2nd, Dave Moore 4th.

Careers Club

By Jill Hunt

The long ride to Rochester seemed to fly by quickly as the members of the Marion Health Careers Club became acquainted with the members from Mt. Vernon's club which was sharing the bus.

After a bit of rest Thursday night, the clubs started early with a tour of the Mayo Clinic and its Medical Museum across the street Friday afternoon.

In the Medical Museum the group was able to view the visible man, a life size model in which the inner organs of the body are visible.

The ride home was quieter as the tired group rested. The trip was over but its benefits will last much longer.

Congratulations to the Health Careers Club for a successful year.

Rap-In

By Joyce Lanning
Youth Chairman

Most people in Marion High School know about Marion's Rap-In organization or have at least heard about it. But how many are really informed about it and its function?

It is general knowledge that Rap-In is a public service for youths by youths, but many students might be interested in knowing that we also have an experienced staff of adult supervisors for guidance purposes, family and church services, and that we also try to keep fairly well-informed on the subject of drugs. The Rap-In organization, we feel, would be a very rewarding experience, as it has been for our past and present members, to those young people truly interested in human relationships and community problems which involve youths.

Right now, Rap-In is mostly made up of Senior workers, most of whom will have to quit before the end of this summer to pursue their own college plans, etc.

We're especially interested in having sophomore and junior members, and will be happy to interview any Marion or Linn-Mar High School student who would be interested in joining. So, to those who feel that they themselves would not only benefit from this volunteer work, but feel also that they could help others, feel free to call Rap-In at 377-8218 any week night between 7 and 10 p.m. to discuss application.

Students, we need your support! Please consider the possibilities of a rewarding informative and fun experience in our organization.

Who Does Work?

The population of the country is 180 million, but there are 64 million over 60 years of age, leaving 116 million to do the work.

People under 21 total 59 million, which leaves 57 million to do the work.

Thirty-one million government employees leaves 26 million to do the work.

Six million in the armed forces leaves 20 million to do the work.

Deduct 17 million state, county, and city employees leaves 3 million to do the work.

There are 2.5 million people in hospitals, asylums, etc., leaving 500,000 workers, but 450,000 of these are bums or other who do not work, so that leaves 50,000 to do the work.

Now it may interest you to know that there are 49,998 people in jail so that leaves just two people to do all the work, and that is you and me, brother, and I'm getting tired of doing it all myself so let's get with it!!!

Anonymously submitted

Home Ec. Class Was Interesting

Another year and another year of knowledge. This especially holds true for the home economics classes. Mrs. Mentzer has proved to Marion High School that she knows what she teaches.

The Practical Home Economics class had units in housing, foods, clothing and family living. Guest speakers such as doctors and advisors on adoption have brought added interest to the class.

The Food class studied the cost nutrient value and the way to prepare food. Refreshments for Honor's Night was one of their projects.

The Home Economics I class learned among other important things, the art of sewing on knits. They're making shirts and lingerie right now.

The boys class, well you know one thing they have learned! (If you don't know it now you are too late!) They made the lunch for cafeteria, Tuesday, May 16. It was O.K. I guess. Mr. Morgan said it really was "good, real good". Thirty-five out of 40 teachers supported the boys by eating the lunch. The students really didn't stand behind them. Usually 450 or more students eat lunch, but only 390 ate Tuesday. The coaches thought the lunch was wonderful. They would have given the boys and A+. They even did the cleaning up. Mrs. Mentzer thought they were really, really great, but they wish more people would have supported them. All in all it was a good experience for all students that made it and ate it.

By Debbie Lovell

"How do you get this stuff off the spoon?"

"One lump. . . or two?!"

Student Senate Worked Hard!

By Wendy Hall

Attention All Student Senate Members! Go right ahead and pat yourself on the back!

You deserve it!

For those of you who weren't aware of what your Student Senate has done for you, besides regular business, in twenty-two meetings during the 1971-72 school year, here is a review: They have given married students equal student rights (married student policy), given pregnant student equal rights upon the approval of a board consisting of the girl's doctor, the school nurse, her teachers and the principal (pregnant student policy), and donated time to a community project helping the JayCee's prepare toys for needy children at Christmas time.

Among regular business, Student Senate representatives attended the State Student Council meeting in Ames (October, 1971), the District Student Council meeting at Iowa City (November, 1971) and the Kennedy Issue week.

Something new this year was the WaMac Idea Exchange, held at Monticello in March. Student Senate representatives from WaMac Schools gathered there and exchanged ideas on issues. May 18 will be the WaMac Student Exchange, a program in which representatives from WaMac schools will visit other schools for two days. This year, we will be "exchanging" with Manchester.

From Mr. Kramer, "I think one of the most important things the Senate has accomplished this year is the opening of communication between board members and students."

The class election this year was worked on and completed by Senate members.

President this year was Bob Sixta and Vice President, Mike Wood. Next year, Bob McCue and Marcia will work as President and Vice President, respectively.

Thank you for a great year, Student Senate! : : :

Steve Jensen Received Annual Science Award

On Honors Night, Mr. Rinas awarded Steve Jensen the Bausch-Lomb Science Award on behalf of Bausch-Lomb for Steve's outstanding work in the science courses he has taken in high school. Steve was chosen by the science faculty of this high school.

Congratulations, Steve!
By Jill Hunt

Wills Valuables To Underclassmen

I, Lance Alexander, will my diet pills and Weight Watchers Life Membership Card to LaDonna York and Gary Burkhardt.

I, Sandee Anderson, will all my black friends to Bob Joice, and binoculars to the freshman and sophomore girls.

I, Rodger Bailey, will all my Texas Death Matches to Dan Hoke and Gary Bolden.

I, Steve Barton, will a permanent pass to the hospital to Sonya Bracha.

I, Brad Bates, will Gail Boyer's private phone number to Wendy Vennetta.

I, Dan Begley, will all of my endless energy acquired from Mrs. Swinton, to the great intelligence of Walter Carson with the hope that he will apply himself to his limit. And I will to M.H.S. all the love in locker number 216.

I, Dick Boquist, will one pound of prunes to Chris McMillan.

I, Peggy Bowen, will a "gaste-post" to my Oklahoma "hub", a copy of The House of Usher to my March 24th constituents, and the Iron Virgin wills a chastity belt and the lyrics to Gary Puckett's "Lady Willpower" to Ed.

I, Connie Bowers, will my drive-in movie pants to Carey Orness.

I, Greg Braden, will Mr. Hippie's Babysitting ability to anyone who needs it.

I, Sonyarae Bracha, will the best of luck to Tricia and Julie.

I, Yvonne Bruring, will senioritis to all the juniors next year

I, Angelo Carrilo, will locker 19 to Kathy Reid.

I, Max Christensen, will my car to Paige Klinger (the taxi service).

I, Mike Ciha, will my Tomcat card to Sheri Jacque and a pacifier to Paige Klinger and Wendy Marshall.

I, Jim Clark, will my prep book to any fool who will take it next year.

I, Kim Collins, will a swimming pool to Toad.

I, Luann Culbertson, will my towel to Dee.

I, Rich Delp, will next year's football team to 108 can Record.

I, Jon Derflinger, will my facial hair to the little junior boys.

I, Gary Dippel, will some athletical ability to my HOT-DOG brother, Terry.

I, Becky Downey, will the garbage can in the lunchroom and my dirty blue jeans to Max Revelli, Kim Collins, and Jerry Lancaster.

I, Gary Evarts, will all my curly hair and soft blubber to Jana Grady.

I, Vickie Farrington, will the loan of my tent to Cindy Dippel and Connie Powers.

I, Dee Feddern, will good luck in the next election to the School Board.

I, John Flory, will three cases of warm beer and a lifetime membership to the John Birth Society to Otis (Oats) Roby.

I, Adrienne Ford, will my ability to play "The Royal Cardinal Puff-Puff" to Julie Klein.

I, Elizabeth Frye, will my corner in Room 9 to any Speech Club Member who needs it, and our old phone directory to Lance Alexander.

I, Mark Godar, will my old beat up harmonica to Mr. Risk.

I, Wendell Gould, will my book on censorship to the Vox Editors.

I, Jana Grady, will a back-row parking space to Mr. Dollinger, a Mark Eden course to Mrs. Bennett and Debi Snyder, and a loving dictionary to Gary Evarts.

I, Judy Grishaber, will to M.H.S. all the money Laurie Sandry has spent at Taco Kid this year, to install a new heating system.

I, Sherry Griswold, will one engineless V.W. to Denise Hunt and Kim Wilson.

I, Dennis Hansen, will my pumpkin bread recipe to the Wrestling team.

I, Debbie Herdliska, will a bib to Melanie Gates for those future dates with that certain someone who slobbers at certain intervals in the night.

I, Vicki Hewitt, will the High School to Jill Christensen.

I, Diana Hoffa, will a kiss to Glenn McCue for helping me celebrate my birthday.

I, Debbi Hollingsworth, will next year's senior boys to this year's freshman girls (as if they'd want them!)

I, Teri Hopkins, will poppy seed cake to Kirk, Brad, and Barry.

I, Jessie Hovey, will my feminist attitudes to all of the junior male chauvinist sex bigots.

I, Russ Hradek, will my card playing luck to Don Viergever.

I, Karen Hudock, will Bob Sixta all the fish he wants, Alan Green another milkman and my sister Gail to anyone that wants her.

I, Jill Hunt, will my free time and my popularity with the opposite sex to Denise Hunt and Tim Carter respectively.

I, Dick Jacobsen, will!

I, Sheri Jacque, will a new set of rules and regulations to the Senior Jokers (T.D.S.)

I, Don Jensen, will the best to Marion High.

I, Steve Jensen, will the bottom of my drumstick to Cheri Lynn.

I, Laurie Johnson, will the bottomless pits in the parking lot to all Volkswagon drivers.

I, Anita Jones, will "it" to all future Forensic League members, and my vast supply of cheese to Mrs. Hulin.

I, Julie Klein, will my Barbie doll to Dave Wicke and my white excuse card to Donna Feddern.

I, Peg Kleis, will my cheerleader's spirit to a few freshman-sophomore cheerleaders.

I, Michelle Klink, will confidence and competence to Dale.

I, Julie Krizek, will plum dumplings to Sandy Wade.

I, Jerry Lancaster, will a new motorcycle to outfit to Mrs. Bennett.

I, Joyce Lanning, will the ability to read the dictionary correctly and to improve her vocabulary to Donna Boyd.

I, Connie Larson, will my tail to Christopher Robin.

I, Mike Little, will my red bikini underwear to Mr. Shaffer, (if they fit).

I, Jon Luedtke, will my academic ability to the junior class in hopes they can surpass the incoming kindergarten class of '72".

I, Kristine Lurth, will a case of Pepto Bismol to the students who eat hot lunch next year.

I, Sue Mangold, will my skill at making long distance collect phone calls from the pay phone in 5th hour lounge to Diane Collins.

I, John Mann, will my ability to cut weight to Coach Shaffer.

I, David Marks, will my ability to perform with a vacuum sweeper to Ray and his advocates.

I, Chris McMillen, will a crate of bananas to Dick Boquist.

I, Carol Mefford, will my math ability to Twila Soden.

I, Cheryl Mefford, will all the senior fun to the juniors.

I, Jill Morning, will Little Harold to Bruce Waters.

I, Mary Moulds, will closed circuit TV's for the restrooms to Mr. Kramer and Mrs. Costello.

I, Steve Mullenix, will a bicycle to a frustrated car freak.

I, Dave Neagle, will a 220-volt live wire to Mr. Cracraft.

I, Debbie Newberry, will Peter Pan to Joe Taylor.

I, Jane Nidey, will my ability to remember to Joel Cox.

I, Dale Oliphant, will 1/2 gallon of Mogan David wine to Ken Rathje.

I, Steve Olsen, will my hustling ability to my brother Mark.

I, Paula Orcutt, will this chain of fools to each link in it.

I, Carey Orness, will a bottle of bubble bath to Marcia Sharon and the other bubble twin.

I, Vicki Osborn, will my final ability to perform gymnastics to all the unsuccessful underclassmen who will be needing it!

I, Arlette Pelley, will my run of luck to Kim Nelson and Debbie Mahoney.

I, Joe Peterson, will the old mill factory to Fred.

I, Steve Potter, will my corn blight to Jeff Draeger and Greg Anderson.

I, Jeff Preston, will Susan Alexander my stamina, perseverance, and patience so she can stand one more semester in this place without becoming completely insane.

I, Mel Prouty, will a car that runs to Rick Von Behren.

I, George Redford, will $300 and a trip to New York to Debbi Neilsen.

I, David Reid, will a dominating husband with compatible voice volume to Mrs. Bennett so that she will realize just how surprised women can be. I am also sending her a man's disguise so that she may masquerade as a man and see just how tough it is to be one.

I, Massino Revelli, will my Italian-English pocket dictionary to Mr. Kramer (then he can spell and pronounce my name).

I, Kim Reynolds, will a cuddly life-sized teddy bear to Di'Mar Barker and Don Brake to share equally, and Ado Annie wills her sex appeal and sweet pertater pie to Mrs. Hulin and Mrs. Stack.

I, Joan Richards, will muskrat to Pat Richards.

I, Jeri Riggie, will all my math papers to Joe Ellen Riggie.

I, Emily Roberts, will my dancing ability to Renee Marks.

I, Richard Ross, will my body to the United States Government.

I, Carol Rutan, will a baby rattle to Jeri Riggie.

I, Jennifer Ryan, will a lid and a case to Larry Slaymaker.

I, Laurie Sandry, will National Ski Parol and skiing lessons to Julie Shontz.

I, Casey Scheppele, will nothing to no one because I need everything I've got.

I, Dennis Schuster, will a steel comb to Don Davis.

I, Julie Shontz, will a good time to a certain mann.

I, Roberta Sixta, will the seed of doubt to Jerry Morgan.

I, Terry Skilling, will my list of lock-er combinations to Cousin Kirk.

I, Jane Smith, will my typing eraser to Francine Walton.

I, Debi Snyder, will all the car insurance in the world to Vonda Renfer.

I, Nancy Sufficool, will the 5th and final edition of the "Soapbubble Theory of Pollution Control" to Casey Scheppele. With this I also will a glass of water and a bar of soap to try it out.

I, Joe "Torque" Taylor, will a sledge hammer and a 3 inch chisel to Mr. Fox to adjust his point gap.

I, Mark Thomas will my open locker to Mel Prouty.

I, Edmund Trenkamp, will my wonderful personality, my good looks, my ability to cool and my son George to Julie McCormac

I, Cindy Trimble, will my Consumer's Math Book to Joanne Trimble.

I, Pat Tullis, will a 12er and 3 nickels to Jim Hutchens.

I, Connie Van Note, will The book, "Tips for Teeny Weeny Boppers" to Steve Nielsen and his few friends.

I, Deb Vinson, will a new light to 1202.

I, Rick Von Behren, will all my English intelligence to Mrs. Bennett.

I, Diane Ward, will a flashlight and a battery-operated cheek-spreader to Lance Alexander.

I, Jeff Welch, will Auburn University to Mary Timms, and a bowl full of cherreis to Debbie Vinson.

I, Becky Wemndt, will a Mark Eden's Beauty Developer to a certain sophomore girl.

I, Dave Wicke, will my stereo to my neighbor, Mr. Krainer.

I, Kathy Williamson, will a cushion, on which to seat himself, at all the girls' basketball games next year to Dr. Sorenson.

I, Doug Wilson, will one more helping of potatoes to my lunch plate.

I, John Winistorfer, will the "Blue Moon" to Mrs. Bennett.

I, Dave White, will a speech club letter to Mr. Roger Hanson.

I, Mike Wood, will one Playboy fold-out to Beth Lusk, one Retard to the Class of '73, and one throw-up bag and my denim work shirt to Paige Klinger.

I, Craig Worm, will my right front fender to Ken Rathje.

I, Tom Wright, will my drafting abilities to Mr. Cracraft.

I, LaDonna York, will my ability to gain weight to Lance Alexander and Gary Burkhardt.

Grads Look To Future

COLLEGE:

Coe--Diane Ward, Dick Jacobsen, Sherry Griswold

Cornell--Becky Downey, Sheri Jacque, Steve Jensen, Jerry Lancaster, Terry Skilling.

Creighton University--Deanna Feddern, Rich Delp, Debbie Vinson

Iowa State University--Jim Clark, Julie Shontz, Janet Campbell, Paula Orcutt

Kirkwood--Connie Van Note, David Reid, Steve Mullenix, Cris McMillen, Mark Godar, Gary Evarts, Jon Derflinger, Steven Barton

Mid-America Nazarene College--Steve Potter, LaDonna York

Parsons--Angelo Carrillo, David Wicke

University of Iowa--Nancy Sufficool, Jill Hunt, Jessie Hovey, Jana Grady, Peg Bowen

University of Northern Iowa--John Winistorfer, Michael B. Wood, Julie Klein, Debbie Hollingsworth, Mike Ciha, Sandee Anderson.

Wartburg--Anita Jones, Kathy Power, Jeff Preston, Judy Grishaber

Auburn University--Jeff Welch

Central College--Bob Sixta

Cottey College--Michelle Klink

Drake University--Debi Snyder

Ellsworth--Rodger Bailey

Iowa Wesleyan--Laurie Sandry

Kirkville--John Mann

McPherson College--John Flory

Midland College--Sue Mangold

Mount Mercy--Liz Frye

Muscataine--Jon Luedtke

Rockford College--Laurie Johnson

Simpson--Kim Reynolds

South Dakota State University--Connie Larson

University of Dubuque--Adrienne Ford

University of Italy--Max Revelli

University of Northern Colorado--Bev Prostine

William Penn College--Dan Begley

Unknown--Kathy Williamson, Dennis Schuster, Carey Orness, Mark Thomas,

Joyce Lanning, Diane Hoffa

OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING

Kirkwood--Doug Wilson, Tom Wright,

Jane Smith, Julie Krizek, Deb Herdliska,

Wendell Gould, Rick Von Behren

C.R. Business School--Peg Kleis

Breech Academy Stewardess Training--

Connie Bowers, Jill Morning

Barbering school--Sonyarae Bracha

Welding school--Edmund Trenkamp

Nursing--Karen Hudock (St. Lukes LPN),

Kristine Lurth (St. Lukes LPN), Yvonne

Bruring, Mary Moulds

MILITARY

U.S. Marine Corps--Brad Bates

Air Force--Lance Alexander, Greg

Braden, David Marks, Joe Peterson, Richard Ross, Craig Worm

Navy--Don Jensen

WORK

Arlette Pelley (Farmers State Bank),

Vicki Osborn (Secretary), Cheryl Mef-

ford (Secretary), Mike Little (Gazette),

Dick Boquist (Telephone Company),

Russ Hradek (Sheet Metal Apprenticeship),

Dave White (Police Training), Dennis

Hansen, Vicki Hewitt, Carol Mefford,

Dave Neagle, Jane Nidey, Dale Oliph-

ant, Mel Prouty, Emily Roberts, Carol

Rutan, Casey Scheppele, Cindy Trimble,

Debbie Newberry, Pat Tullis, Max Christensen, Steve Olson.

MARRIAGE

Luanne Culbertson, Gary Dippel, Vickie

Farrington, Jeri Riggie, Joe Taylor, Joan

Richards, Sonyarae Bracha, Greg Braden,

Mike Little

TRAVEL--Steve Olsen (Europe)

OTHER--Kim Collins, George Redford,

Teri Hopkins.